

Dangerous Minds

Learning is the prize. Yes, knowing how to read something and understand it is the prize. Okay? Knowing how to think is the prize... Okay.

Well, yeah, well, you know how to run, too. But not the way you could run if you trained. You know, the mind is like a muscle, okay, and if you want it to be really powerful, you got to work it out. Okay? Each new fact gives you another choice. Each new idea builds another muscle, okay, and it's those muscles that are gonna make you really strong.

Those are your weapons. In this unsafe world, I want to arm you.... Yeah. Hey, try it, you're just sittin' here anyway. Look. Okay, if at the end of the term, you're not faster, stronger and smarter, you will have lost nothing. But if you are, you'll be that much tougher to knock down.
